NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

BANGOR,

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1837.

OUR NEXT LEGISLATURE.

There are three important subjects that demand the attention of our next Legislature. They are, 1st. Our BOUNDARY line. 2nd. The GEOLOGICAL SURVEY. 3d. Our STATE PENITENTIARY.

1st. The BOUNDARY. It is high time that we knew whether we are Maine or whether we are not Maine in other words, whether a goodly portion of us belong to the British Government or the United States? With this view agents, intelligent and efficient agents should be appointed to attend to the United States survey, and let the British be invited to meet them; for how can we look to the General Government to preserve our integrity of territory and protect our citizens against the lawless and tyrannical conduct of the British, while we pursue that base and dastardly course that has disgraced our State Government for years past? Never was there a more favorable time to press this subject than the present.

2d. The GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, is of much greater importance to us as a state than is generally supposed. The Legislature should make pecuniary provision for the Geologist to visit in person, every town and plantation every river and harbor and in fact, every locality worth seeing in the State that is, as soon as we know what the State is And should he give a detailed Report of our Quarries of GNEISS and GRANITE, on the margins of some of our best navigable Rivers, the state would be amply remunerated by the knowledge thus conveyed of this new source, alone, of her future wealth. For be it remembered that Maine, alone, is hereafter to furnish the whole Union, if not many of the cities of Europe, with this invaluable and inexhaustible building material—a material whose demand is increasing daily in our cities and will continue to increase, the more its beauty and permanency are understood. And there is one important reason; why public attention should be called to this new and increasing article of export from Maine; and that is, the more these quarries are worked, the cheaper the article can be afforded.

While on this subject, if I may be pardoned a slight digression, I would add, that it is but an act of justice to our Board of Internal Improvement to say that their selection of a GEOLOGIST is highly creditable to them; for it is said by competent judges that no man in this country or Europe has higher claims to eminence as a practical and scientific Geologist, than Dr. Jackson. As it is for the interest and honor of our State to retain, if possible, this highly accomplished and scientific man, I hope the next Legislature will give him a salary that will induce him to continue his survey for years to come, and not continue that course toward him, that disgraced the last Legislature, the meanness of which could only be accounted for but by the ignorance of some of its members. Is it not an act of meanness and blindness to our own interests, to withhold, from those who are endeavoring to unfold to us our hitherto hidden treasures, any facility for thoroughly exploring our interior, while the General Government in their Revenue Cutters are transporting them, along our extensive sea coast, free of expense to Maine?

3d. Our STATE PENITENTIARY must be overhauled. This Institution, should have been for years past a handsome income to our State. Instead of that, it ever has been and ever will be, if conducted as it now is, a constant moth. What is to be done to remedy this evil? I leave this question to the wisdom of our next Legislature to decide and I trust they will see that active, and above all, independent agents are appointed to investigate thoroughly the defects of this institution, whether in location or management, and report, forthwith to the legislature, before it is any further expense to the State.

Our public schools Judiciary and Military systems the Insane Hospital, and last, though not least (and it is small enough) in connexion with the preceding—the far famed "ONE DOLLAR BILL" law are subjects that will doubtless come before the Legislature.

CANADA.

The news from Canada, by the Montreal papers, published by us yesterday, is confirmed. The Montreal Herald of the 18th inst. announces, officially the entire defeat of the Reformers at Grand Brule the burning of St. Eustache St. Benoit St. Scholastique, and St. Therese, and the return of the forces of the Royal[illegible], after a [illegible] of uninterrupted [illegible], to Montreal.

The Herald states, that one soldier of the British [illegible] killed, one mortally wounded and one [illegible] severely wounded. The loss on the side of the Revolutionists is estimated at [illegible] and 123 taken prisoners, of whom 20 [illegible] wounded. The whole force did not much exceed 600.

The Herald says, that "the rebellion may now be considered at an end so far as fighting is concerned, but the [illegible] conquest has yet to be achieved."

"The Intelligencer" is the name of a paper we received yesterday which has been recently established in Frankfort, after a long and painful journey from Belfast to that place. We should judge, from the appearance of the first number, that it would prove a powerful and formidable rival to our neighbor the "Republican."

CABINET CHAMPAGNE. The N. Y. Post and Augusta Age, recently made a grave charge against the U. S. Bank, of dealing in Wines, founded in the fact that a Wine Merchant had advertised "Biddle Champagne." We see that another Wine Merchant has advertised "Cabinet Champagne." Will those papers inform us whether the Government has gone into the "spirit business" in opposition to the Bank.

CONGRESS.

IMPORTANT FROM WASHINGTON SLAVERY AND ANTI SLAVERY—THE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION FROM THE SLAVE HOLDING STATES MADDENED AT THE ENTHUSIASM OF THE NORTHERN ABOLITIONISTS, THREATEN TO GO HOME!!

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Express.]

WASHINGTON, Dec 20th.

In the House, the Speaker announced Mr. Pope, of Kentucky, as a member of Ways and Means in the place of Mr. Everett, resigned.

ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

Under the order of unfinished business, this subject came up for consideration. Mr. Slade, of Vt., was entitled to the floor, and entered at once upon the merits of Petitions praying for the Abolition of Slavery in the District of Columbia Mr. Slade entered into a somewhat lengthy discussion in regard to petitions, the merits of the prayer asked and in conclusion he begged the House to change its policy. Mr Slade was soon called to order for making some insolent remark. The Speaker called him to order.

Mr. Legare, of South Carolina, begged Mr. Slade to desist, and in a speech of great warmth of manner and excitement, he branched out in a brief reply to Mr. Slade, and called him to yield He told him the South could not listen to such remarks as Mr. Slade was making. Their homes, their firesides, their domestic comfort, their hopes, their fears, all were interested, and he could not sit quietly and hear the South traduced Mr. Slade went on after Mr. Legare had concluded. Mr. Dawson, of Georgia, begged that he would yield the floor. Mr. Slade refused to yield, and continued his speech, making some very severe and exciting remarks upon the subject of slavery.

The excitement in the House at this moment was very great. Mr. Dawson again begged Mr Slade to yield the floor for the purpose of reply. Mr. Slade still refused, and went on.

Mr. Wise called him to order, and said that it was not in order to speak of the subject of slavery, and to define what slavery was, upon the mere presentation of a petition praying for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Slade, as the Speaker decided, was not out of order, and went on.

Mr. Legare here, under much excitement, moved that the House adjourn, though before 1 o'clock.

The motion was not in order, and Mr. Slade continued his remarks.

Mr. Dawson, of Georgia, at 1 o'clock, asked if it was now in order to enter upon the consideration of the President's Message.

The Speaker decided that the consideration of the petition was in order before any other business.

Mr. Slade, at 2 P. M, is still upon the floor. For the last half hour he has spoken without interruption, except being called to order once by the Speaker. His speech is of the abolition order, such as George Thompson or Wm. Lloyd Garrison would deliver to a New England audience. Of course the House is much excited, particularly the members from the south. The end I know not, but you may judge the future from the past.

The Senate consumed the day, thus far in the reception of petitions and the consideration of private bills, and resolutions relating to private affairs.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Dec. 20.

The Express Mail left Mr. Slade going on with a tolerable degree of quietude He was at 2 P. M., the time the Express Mail leaves the city, entering into a somewhat lengthy discussion, quoting largely from the journals, public documents, history, &c. of slavery in Virginia,—

Mr. Rhett, of South Carolina, called him to order.

Mr. Wise, of Virginia, after saying that Mr. Slade had wandered from his subject by discussing the merits of the abstract question of slavery in the States, and giving a complete history of slavery in Virginia, concluded by INVITING EVERY MEMBER OF THE SOUTHERN DELEGATION TO LEAVE THE REPRESENTATIVES' HALL. [illegible] "agreed," "AGREED." Mr. Wise at once left the Hall, Mr. [illegible] followed on, and nearly every [illegible] of the Virginia, Georgia and South C[illegible] on.

[illegible] in the Hall. A half a [illegible] members were upon the [illegible] the slavery and [illegible] each other to [illegible] Speaker was listening to none, [illegible] all the members to order.

[illegible] out of order, [illegible] in the [illegible] the District of Columbia. Partial order was at length [illegible] had not yield[illegible] about to put[illegible] the House, whether Mr. Slade should or should not continue his remarks, when a motion [illegible] for the yeas [illegible] upon the question to adjourn. The House responded to the call, and the vote stood 106 to 65. The Speaker therefore declared the House adjourned.

Mr. C[illegible] of South Carolina, in the meantime had been instructed by the Southern members who had left the Hall, and who were in the District of Columbia Committee Room, to invite all the representatives from the Southern States to take part in the meeting. The invitation was made in the Hall, after the Speaker had left the chair, and a majority of the southern representatives left the Hall for the Committee Room the North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Arkansas members did not leave.

The Southern Delegation were for a long time in Committee, and a warm discussion, I am told, was the result. I cannot, however, give you any information in relation to the opinions agreed upon by the members. Some have been excited enough, I am told, to advocate a return to their homes. Others more disposed to make such a proposition conditional, and others to treat the matter more lightly, by replying to such speeches as Mr. Slade's in the manner they deserved. These are, however, but outdoor opinions and cannot be depended upon.

We learn from the Courier and Enquirer, that the meeting of the Southern Delegation was attended by Mr. Calhoun, who took the lead, called for immediate action and proposed that a committee of six, three from the Senate and three from the House, should be appointed, to report, the same evening, what measures should be adopted. This committee consisted of Crittenden, of Kentucky, Whig, and two administration men of the Senate, and Wise, of Va., Whig, and two administration men of the House. Mr. Crittenden was not at the meeting.

[From the Cincinnati Gazette, Dec 16]

ROBBERY OF THE EXPRESS MAIL.

About the first of this month it was ascertained that frequent losses had occurred of letters sent by the express mail, from New Orleans and Nashville. Gen. Armstrong, postmaster at Nashville, Tenn, and J. M. Campbell, Esq, post-master at Louisville, Ky. and Judge Burke, postmaster here, and George Pitt, Esq. post office agent, were in correspondence to ferret out the cause.

Some days since, a boy by the name of Henry S. Cosgrove, who was carrying the mail near the Three Forks, Ky. on the route between Louisville, Ky., and Nashville, Tenn., sent to his mother in this city a check drawn in New Orleans, on a bank in New York, for $1500, with the request that she would send it on for collection; and that it had been given to him by a man, who told him that if he would collect the amount of the check he should have $500 of the proceeds. His mother sent it on, and her friend at New York wrote back to her that it could not be paid without the authority of Mr. James Hicks, Jr., to whose order it was made payable.

This letter was received on the 13th inst Mrs. Cosgrove called on Mr. Hicks, and then found it was a check that had been sent to him from New Orleans; but which he had not received. The day before, the 12th, young Cosgrove came home, and on the 13th, immediately after the facts above stated about the check were known, he was arrested by Mr. E. P. Langdon, our assistant postmaster, and committed by Col. Samuel W. Davies, mayor of the city, to jail, for trial.

He would make no confession at the time of his arrest, but stated that another boy, by the name of George W. Marsh, who had been riding express at the same place, had also come up with him that Marsh was to have half of the $500.

The next morning, 14th, Marsh was arrested by Mr. Jacobs deputy marshal, and also committed by the mayor. Marsh made a different statement from that made by Cosgrove. The Mayor and Mr. Langdon then went to the jail, and had a farther investigation with Cosgrove, who then made confession that himself and Marsh had robbed the express mail that checks to a large amount had been taken from the Mail and were in possession of Marsh, with other facts that will come out in detail. Marsh's trunk was immediately examined, by Mr Langdon and Ira A Butterfield, deputy marshal, and checks, post notes and drafts found, amounting to upwards of $70,000, which are in the hands of the mayor. Shortly after Mr J. W. Seiley R. Nocks and W. Moody, city constables, succeeded in finding about $1600 in bank notes which had been held by Marsh.

Peter Vanaden, who had received a part of the money from Cosgrove and Marsh, has also been committed. He had $700 in notes, which is secured. Another person is said to be concerned in receiving money from the boys. The persons above named, and John McLane, and Jesse O'Niel, constables, have aided in these disclosures, and used every vigilance to ferret out the persons concerned.

The necessity of adhering to the law, in prohibiting bank notes from being sent in the express mail, must be apparent to every person; it ought not to be violated without penalty.—The checks and notes, so far as found are in safe keeping.

One of the very many objections to the Express Mail is, that it is carried on horseback by mere boys, without any regard to safety.

FROM FLORIDA. The Intelligence from Fort Mellon lately published, together with some additional particulars, authorize the belief that the Seminole war is very near its close.

A slip from the office of the Georgia Constitutionalist brings us a letter from Fort Mellon dated the 7th inst. and containing the agreeable intelligence that all the chiefs, including Sam Jones, have agreed to emigrate. A great council was held at Fort Mellon on the 7th, at which were present all the officers of the army at that post, the Cherokee delegates, and Micanopy with the other Seminole chiefs; and at which it was concluded that the Cherokees should go back to Sam Jones and bring him in, with his followers, he having consented to surrender on condition, not that Gen. Jesup should "apologize" to him, as has been stated, but simply that [illegible] a rumor having reached his ears that Gen. Jesup intended to disgrace him, by making him walk through the camp dressed in woman's clothes. A horse was to be [illegible] for him, as he is not only very old, but much afflicted with rheumatism.

Other [illegible] were selected to go out and bring the women and children, and [illegible] bring in the horses and cattle.

Gen. Jesup after making these arrangements went to Garey's Ferry, to receive and [illegible] charge the volunteers from Tennessee and [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] other chief, are to be sent to [illegible] according to instructions from the War Department.

[illegible] tion has been received from Col. Taylor at [illegible] Indians fled to [illegible] camp [illegible] Alligator and another chief, with their people on the third day thereafter.

BANGOR AND FRANKFORT RAILROAD.—We are pleased to learn that an accurate and skilful engineer has been employed to survey this road, and is now engaged in this village in completing his report and estimate A very favorable track has been found for this important road, and can be so run as to accommodate Hampden Village. The facts in this case will warrant the assertion that there cannot be found in Maine an object for investment which promises so much, for its Stockholders and the accommodation of the public, as this road. We now look forward with pleasure to the completion of this important Road, united as it will be, with the road leading from Bangor to Old Town, thereby affording to the extensive lumbering interests of that flourishing village, as well as the great commercial operations of the City of Bangor, a direct Railroad communication to the navigable winter waters of Frankfort. [Frankfort Intelligencer.

From Rio Janeiro By the brig Vesta Capt. Cottermole, arrived last night from Rio Janeiro, we have received advices from that place to the, 24th October. We learn that an expedition of eight hundred men, had previously to the departure of the Vesta, been sent to Rio Grande by the Brazilian Government, as the Province still continued in a state of revolt. J. B. Randolph, Esq. of the United States Navy, and bearer of despatches from the Coast of Brazil, has come passenger by the Vesta. The United States ships, Falmouth and Lexington had sailed from Rio for the Pacific through the Straits of Magellan, the former on the 19th and the latter on the 22d Oct. Acting midshipman C. Bennett had been left at Rio in consequence of indisposition; with this exception, all on board the vessels were in good health.

The U. S. ship Fairfield had arrived at Rio on the 22d Oct. from the river La Plata. Midshipman H. Roland had been left at Buenos Ayres, sick. The Fairfield reported that the U. S. brig Dolphin had been left at Maldonado, with the small pox on board.

Captain Cottermole, of the Vesta, reports that on the 5th November, in lattitude 14 48 south longitude 34 40 west, he had been chased by a piratical looking brig, apparently of about 150 tons burden, and carrying 10 guns, and full of men. The pirate showed Portuguese colors, and kept up a steady chase for eight hours, when, as night was approaching, she bore up, and stood off to the westward, under an easy press of sail The Vesta has $20 000 in specie, and a valuable cargo, and would have proved a handsome prize. *N. South Carolina's Summersets. The divorce Resolutions passed the House, ayes 103, noes 11, ayes 112, noes 2 The Resolve that it would be inexpedient and dangerous to incorporate a National Bank passed, ayes 97, noes 16. In truth, says a North Carolina Editor, the palmetto bush [illegible] the Loco Foco jacket. The "chivalry" of South Carolina is herding with the Buffaloes of the Park.

In one point, however, Mr. Calhoun has not drilled his troops with the exactitude of the Ming veterans, for it was Resolved unanimously, That it is not hereby intended to imply any manner of censure upon other public servants of the State, who, in the exercise of a rightful independence of judgment, may have declared opinions to the contrary of those here announced.

The vote was then taken on sending the resolution to the Senate—Yeas 89, noes 14.

N. B. Mr. Calhoun was in Columbia, "mingling" with the members, during the action upon these resolutions in the House.

RAG BARONS. Mr. Sergeant, in a speech in the Pennsylvania Convention, as an offset to some Loco Foco orator, quoted the banking returns of the city and county, and found that in a certain number of banks, there were no less than 7112 stockholders. By dividing the capital of those banks by that number, it would be seen that the average investment of each would be about $2,000 from $120 to $140 per annum. A large number of these shareholders were persons in moderate, he had almost said poor circumstances. And yet, it was sought, forsooth, to denounce them as a bank aristocracy! In the Mechanic's Bank, it was proved that one-third of the shareholders were FEMALES; and in the Southwalk Bank, a MAJORITY were FEMALES, the trustees of orphans, minors, &c.

A DIALOGUE IN ST. GABRIEL STREET. "Did you hear that Miss is about to marry the schoolmaster?" "Yes," replied D., "and I do not believe a word of it." "Why not? why should she object to a schoolmaster?" "Because," said D, "I know she has a pupil in her eye."

The Exploring Expedition. The Providence Journal says it is rumored that the sloop of war Peacock is to be substituted for the Macedonian in this expedition, and that but one of the smaller vessels will be employed.

MAMMOTH MAGNET. We learn from the Medical and Surgical Journal, that Dr. William King, electrician, at No 52 Cornhill, Boston, has nearly completed the largest electro magnet, probably, in the world. It is made of a bar of iron two and a half inches in diameter, thirteen and a half feet long, bent in the horse shoe form, and weighs two hundred and forty-four pounds. The armature or keeper weighs twenty-eight pounds, thrown into the segment of a small circle, in order to meet the two poles of the magnet, which are only seven inches apart.—Seven hundred feet of copper wire, one sixteenth of an inch in diameter; and ten thousand feet one-fortieth of an inch, are wound round the bar, from one extremity to the other. It is impossible at present to determine its power, the frame on which it is to rest not yet being finished. We are persuaded, says the Journal, that this will be the most magnificent philosophical instrument ever constructed in America, or, perhaps, in any other country, if successfully charged. THE [illegible] SYSTEM FOR CUTTING GARMENTS, BASED STRICTLY ON MATHEMATICAL PRINCIPLES.

THE subscriber has invented and patented an apparatus which he calls the Standard Measure, for the use of Tailors.

With this instrument measures can be taken on the body in such a way as to apply on the cloth and draft garments upon Mathematical principles, that will fit the shape measured, be that shape what it may.

The standard system, which is based on this principle is published by the inventor in Boston, in a quarterly Periodical entitled 'The Tailors' Guide and Quarterly Review of Fashions.'

The inventor will be in this city in a few days, when the trade will have an opportunity of examining the work, wherein the principles of the system are fully explained and illustrated.

The above patent apparatus can have no higher recommendation than the following. It was exhibited at the late fair held in Boston by the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association, and the committee appointed by the managers of that fair to examine and judge of its merits, and who were tailors, say of it that it is a new invention, and that they think it will prove useful to the trade, and a Diploma was awarded to the inventor.

To the Hon the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled,

THE undersigned beg leave to represent that a Boom from Ayer's Island, at Stillwater to extend up and across the main Penobscot River through a portion of Ayer's Falls to the eastern shore would greatly accommodate and advantage the Mills and those interested in the manufacture of lumber at that place and in case of injury to the boom above or the escape of logs or other lumber, would afford to the owners and others great facilities in the preservation of their property and save to the community a large amount of property which now annually passes down said river into tide water at or below the mills where they can be safely and advantageously manufactured.

Wherefore we pray your hon body to grant us an Act of Incorporation, with such immunities and powers as may seem just and as will subserve the interests aforesaid. And as in duty bound will ever pray.

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE. TAXES MUST BE PAID

MANY of the good people of this City have had "line upon line, and precept upon precept," by way of polite and pressing invitations, to pay their taxes. The strong language of the Assessor's Warrants for the year 1837, as committed to me will not allow of further parley or delay. Every resident of the city, who has not yet paid his tax, is earnestly called upon to neglect no longer this necessary and important duty, as in such matters "delays are dangerous."

Non Residents should look out in order that the Collector does not make too great a profit in advertising and selling their lands for taxes of 1837. The only way to prevent this is, by calling immediately, and paying the same.

☞ The Collector will be at the City Hall from 9 to 10 A. M. and from 2 to 3 o'clock, P. M.

NEW AND VALUABLE SCHOOL BOOK.

THE attention of School Committees, Teachers and Parents is invited to the examination of the "JUVENILE READER," a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teacher, a new edition of which, revised and corrected, we have just published. It is believed that the book is one which has been very much wanted in our common schools, and indeed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman of known abilities, and long experience in his profession. The pieces in this book, are chiefly selected from popular works designed for youth, and it is believed, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low price and has been adopted in a great many Schools with decided approbation, and having been stereotyped, is free from the danger of having any alterations made in it, which is the greatest trouble with all school books.

Those connected with schools, or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it.

☞ DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

Deservedly the most popular remedy ever known in America?

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The following recommendation is from Dr. Jacob Myers:

Extract of a letter from Dr. Jacob Myers.

"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam has been sold in this country for two years, and the medicine has gained an uncommon celebrity, for it scarcely in one instance failed of having the desired effect. I am by no means in favor of the many nostrums, most of which are impositions upon a credulous public, but that which I know by experience to be effectual, I cannot help but give my approbation thereto. A counterfeit preparation has been offered here by a travelling agent of Comstock, N. Y., and there is also another article vended here that is strongly suspected to be spurious.

JACOB MYERS, M. D.

Mifflinton, Juniata co., Penn May 8, 1837."

 Many new and highly interesting certificates may be examined on the bill of directions.

☞ There are many counterfeit preparations, assuming wholly or in part the name of the original and true V. P. Balsam.

The true article is signed Sampson Reed, on the label to each bottle. Price 50 cts.
